

Chief Judge Order 25-02

11th Judicial District Bond Schedule

WHEREAS, pursuant to C.R.S. §16-4-102(1), “[a]ny person who is in custody, and for whom the court has not set bond and conditions of release pursuant to the applicable rule of criminal procedure, and who is not subject to the provisions of section 16-4-101(5), has the right to a hearing to determine bond and conditions of release.”

WHEREAS, pursuant to C.R.S. §16-4-102(2), “[t]he arresting jurisdiction shall bring an in-custody arrestee before a court for bond setting as soon as practicable, but no later than forty-eight hours after an arrestee arrives at a jail or holding facility.”

WHEREAS, pursuant to C.R.S. §16-4-103(3)(a), “[t]he type of bond and conditions of release shall be sufficient to reasonably ensure the appearance of the person as required and to protect the safety of any person or the community, taking into consideration the individual characteristics of each person in custody, including the person's financial condition.”

WHEREAS, pursuant to C.R.S. §16-4-103(4)(a), “[w]hen the type of bond and conditions of release are determined by the court, the court shall [p]resume that all persons in custody are eligible for release on bond with the appropriate and least-restrictive conditions consistent with provisions” of the paragraph above and “shall consider all methods of bond and conditions of release to avoid unnecessary pretrial incarceration and levels of community-based supervision as conditions of pretrial release.” §16-4-103(4)(c). “To the extent a court uses a bond schedule, the court shall incorporate into the bond schedule conditions of release and factors that consider the individualized risk and circumstances of a person in custody and all other relevant criteria and not solely the level of offense.” §16-4-103(4)(b).

WHEREAS, pursuant to C.R.S. §16-4-113(2)(a), “[f]or a defendant charged with a traffic offense, a petty offense, or a comparable municipal offense, a court shall not impose a monetary condition of release.” This provision does not apply to a traffic offense involving death or bodily injury, eluding or attempting to elude a police officer as described in section 42-4-1413 or operating a vehicle after circumventing an interlock device as described in section 42-2-132.5(10). § 16-4-113(2)(e).
