MINUTES December 20, 2022

Members in Attendance: Jenny Wood, Heather Salazar, James Karbach, Jaime FitzSimons, Joe Thome, Glenn Tapia, and Beth McCann.

Guests in Attendance: Liz Craig.

Administration:

- Approval of November meeting minutes; no objections. Motion James Karbach; Second Glenn Tapia.

Budget Update:

- November FY2023 Budget spreadsheet reviewed and discussed.

HB22-1257: 2022 CCJJ Recommendations-Section 7:

- Glenn wanted to provide historical context and updated information to ensure there was awareness of HB22-1257 to the CTB Board members and those agencies this bill impacts on punitive sanctions with behavioral responses.

CTB and Local Boards Advisory Groups:

- Jenny shared last month that the BHA Workforce Workgroup would like to inquire if the CTB Members and Local Boards would be interested in being an advisory group to provide feedback on the criminal justice endorsement learning curriculum for behavioral health providers. There has not been any updates as of this meeting. Will remove this item from the agenda and Jenny will provide information as this process progresses with the BHA.

CTB Impact Evaluation-Contract Draft with NCSC:

- The Board members reviewed the draft contract for the Funding Impact Evaluation with NCSC. No amendments or edits requested. Draft contract will move forward in the process.

Annual Agency Request Process:

- The Board members continued their discussion on the Annual Agency Request process for the upcoming FY2025 Funding Plan. James shared with the Board members a draft version he proposed of the annual agency request template. Board members who are representatives that receive funding from the CTB (Judicial, DOC, BHA, and DCJ) will bring the proposed draft template back to their respective agencies and bring back feedback and input to the January CTB meeting.
