NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL OF CONSENT TO WAIVER OF MANDATORY FINANCIAL DISCLOSURES IN DOMESTIC RELATIONS CASES

I, the Respondent Petitioner Co-Petitioner in the above-captioned domestic relations case, hereby state that each of the following is true:

1. I previously filed an Affidavit in Support of Waiver of Mandatory Financial Disclosures in Domestic Relations Cases (Form JDF 1372).
2. I hereby withdraw consent to waive mandatory financial disclosures in this dissolution of marriage or legal separation action.
3. I understand that all financial disclosures required under C.R.C.P. 16.2(e)(2) and JDF 1125 SC (Form 35.1) must be exchanged by both parties within 28 days following the date this notice is filed.

Notice: Either party may withdraw consent to waiving mandatory financial disclosures by filing a Notice of Withdrawal of Consent, Form JDF 1373, with the Court. Upon filing a notice withdrawing consent or entry of a Court order requiring complete financial disclosures, both parties must exchange all financial disclosures required under C.R.C.P. 16.2(e)(2) within 28 days following the earlier of the date the notice is filed or entry of a Court order mandating complete financial disclosures.
