 IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ADULT RESPONDENTS**

The outcome of this proceeding may limit or completely take away your right to make decisions about your personal affairs or your financial affairs or both. You must appear in person unless excused by the court. The petitioner is required to make reasonable efforts to help you attend the hearing.

You have the right to be represented by an attorney of your choice at your own expense. If you cannot afford an attorney, one may be appointed for you at State expense. You may request a professional evaluation of your condition. You have the right to present evidence and subpoena witnesses and documents; examine witnesses, including any court-appointed physician, psychologist, or other qualified individual providing evaluations, and the court visitor; and to otherwise participate in the hearing. You may ask that the hearing be held in a manner that reasonably accommodates you. You have the right to request that the hearing be closed, but the hearing may not be closed if you object.

 IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MINOR RESPONDENTS**

Until the court has confirmed an appointee under § 15-14-202, C.R.S., a minor who is the subject of an appointment by a parent or guardian and who has attained twelve years of age has the right to consent or refuse to consent to an appointment of a guardian.

VERIFICATION

I declare under penalty of perjury under the law of Colorado that the foregoing is true and correct.
