CHIEF JUSTICE

Each year the Colorado Judicial Branch presents its annual statistical report to the citizens of Colorado. As Chief Justice of the Colorado Supreme Court, I am pleased to present our report for Fiscal Year 2011. This report reflects the efforts of the courts to implement the United States and Colorado Constitutions and laws by fully and fairly resolving disputes of all kinds.

This statistical report provides a detailed look at the cases filed and resolved in our courts during the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2011. It presents detailed data of court activities at the appellate, district, and county court levels, as well as in probation services. Information is presented by category of court filings and probation caseloads, as well as location of filings.

Like all sectors of the American economy, government at every level continues to work hard to find innovative ways to do more with less. One prominent trend reflected in the Fiscal Year 2011 report is growth in court filings stemming from economically driven disputes such as debt collection and foreclosures. Another prominent trend is growth in the number of court cases with at least one unrepresented litigant. Pro se litigants have different needs, and require more attention and assistance, than represented litigants, which has altered the operations of the courts.

Although this report is full of numbers and trends, these statistics represent real people who may be struggling economically or otherwise and need the courts to function efficiently and effectively. Our judicial system will continue to do its best to carry out its constitutional duty of upholding the rule of law, furthering the paramount principle that the law provides the steady foundation upon which our society rests.

Overall trial court filings brought to our courts in Fiscal Year 2011 numbered 241,177 criminal and 494,921 civil cases. On the appellate level, 1,387 cases were filed with the Supreme Court, which issued 140 opinions. There were 2,742 cases filed with the Court of Appeals, which issued 1,866 published and unpublished opinions with an additional 824 cases either dismissed or transferred to the Supreme Court.

During the past year, I am proud to report the Judicial Branch began several initiatives that will help guarantee equal access to the courts to all in Colorado.

First, we are working to improve services to unrepresented litigants to help reduce not only the amount of time and money they must invest in resolving their disputes, but also the courts' time and resources. We recognize the better prepared and informed a pro se litigant is, the more efficiently a case can move through the court system, and, most importantly, the better the likelihood that a fair and just result will be reached.

Second, we have authorized a two-year pilot project in several counties called the Colorado Civil Access Pilot Project. This initiative was designed by groups including the American College of Trial Lawyers and the University of Denver's Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System. It is meant to streamline pretrial processes in certain civil actions to narrow the disputed facts and issues in a way that I believe will bring down the rising cost and protracted timeframe that most civil litigation demands.

Last, Colorado's Judicial Branch is charged with managing criminal offenders sentenced to probation, a sentencing option that is becoming more important everywhere as an alternative to incarceration for some offenders. Our Division of Probation Services continues its commitment to implementing evidence-based practices in supervising some 80,300 juvenile and adult offenders, meaning our dedicated probation officers are using techniques and processes that have proved effective through careful implementation and analysis.

I look forward to seeing the fruits of these projects in the near future, and reporting those results to you.

As we continue to develop these initiatives and others to improve the way Colorado's courts work, we will never lose sight of our core constitutional functions and the people we serve. We will continue to ensure the Branch is responsive to the needs of the public and to promote the public's understanding of and confidence in the Colorado courts as a co-equal Branch of government.

Sincerely,

Foreword

The Colorado Judicial Branch joins the Legislative and Executive branches to form the government of the State of Colorado. The Judicial Branch is charged with two responsibilities: resolving disputes and supervising offenders on probation.

The Colorado Judicial Department Annual Statistical Report for Fiscal Year 2011 provides information about the Colorado state courts. Profiled in this report are case load statistics for the Colorado Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, District Courts, County Courts, Water Courts, as well as summarized financial information for the Judicial Department.

All references in this report reflect data gathered for Fiscal Year 2011 (July 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011), unless otherwise specified. Organization Chart of the Judicial Department

The Colorado court system consists of the Supreme Court, an intermediate Court of Appeals, district courts and county courts. Each county has both a district court and a county court. Special probate and juvenile courts created by the Colorado Constitution exist in the City and County of Denver. Colorado statutes also authorize locally funded municipal courts with jurisdiction limited to municipal ordinance violations.

1 - Exclusive to the City and County of Denver. In the rest of the state, the district court is responsible for juvenile and probate matters.

2 – The Denver County Court functions as a municipal as well as a county court and is separate from the state court system.

3 – Created and maintained by local government but subject to Supreme Court rules and procedures.

Colorado Supreme Court

The Colorado Supreme Court is the state's court of last resort. Its decisions are binding on all County and District Courts, as well as the Court of Appeals.

The Supreme Court is composed of seven justices who serve renewable 10-year terms. The Chief Justice is selected from the membership of the body and serves at the pleasure of a majority of the justices. The Chief Justice also serves as the executive head of the Colorado Judicial Department and is the ex officio chair of the Supreme Court Nominating Commission. The Chief Justice appoints the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals and the Chief Judge of each of the state's 22 judicial districts, and is vested with the authority to assign judges (active or retired) to perform judicial duties.

Requests to review decisions of the Colorado Court of Appeals constitute a majority of the Supreme Court's filings. The Supreme Court also has direct appellate jurisdiction over cases in which a statute has been held to be unconstitutional, cases involving decisions of the Public Utilities Commission, writs of habeas corpus, cases involving adjudication of water rights, summary proceedings initiated under the Election Code, and prosecutorial appeals concerning search and seizure questions in pending criminal proceedings. All of these appeals are filed directly with the Supreme Court, and, in these cases bypass the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court also has exclusive jurisdiction to promulgate rules governing practice and procedure in civil and criminal actions.

Colorado's attorneys are licensed and disciplined by the Supreme Court. The court's attorney regulation system, funded by attorney registration fees, regulates the profession. In addition, the court oversees the State Court Administrator, Board of Continuing Legal Education, Board of Law Examiners, Commission on Judicial Discipline, and Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee.

Oral arguments are open to the public and you are welcome to visit the court. The clerk's office can assist you in planning a court visit. For more information, please contact the Clerk of the Colorado Supreme Court, at 101 West Colfax Ave., Suite 800, Denver, Colorado 80202; or call (303) 837-3790 or (800) 888-0001.

Case announcements, oral argument schedules, rules, Chief Justice Directives, protocols, links to committees and commissions, and general information about the court is available on the Judicial Branch's website at:

Colorado Court of Appeals

The Colorado Court of Appeals is the state's intermediate appellate court. Twenty-two judges, who sit in panels or divisions of three, serve renewable eight-year terms. The mission of the Court of Appeals is to provide the citizens of Colorado with clear, impartial and timely resolution of appealed orders and judgments as provided by law.

The body was created by statute; accordingly, jurisdiction is limited to areas specified by statute, together with the inherent powers granted to all courts in the state. However, in cases of first impression, or where existing law is not dispositive, the Court of Appeals is a law-making court.

The Court of Appeals is generally the first court to hear appeals of judgments and orders in criminal, juvenile, civil, domestic relations and probate matters. In addition, the Court of Appeals has specific appellate jurisdiction over decisions originating from a number of state administrative boards and agencies, including the Industrial Claim Appeals Office. Its determination of an appeal is final unless the Colorado Supreme Court agrees to hear the matter.

Oral arguments are open to the public and you are always welcome to visit the court. For more information pertaining to the Colorado Court of Appeals, or to observe oral arguments, contact the Clerk of the Court at (303) 837- 3785 or (800) 888-0001, ext. 785. The Court of Appeals is located at 101 W. Colfax Ave., Suite 800 Denver, Colorado 80202.

General information about the court and links to published opinions, oral argument schedules, rules, forms and policies are available on-line at http://www.courts.state.co.us/Courts/Court_Of_Appeals/Index.cfm.

District Court

Colorado is sectioned into 22 Judicial Districts encompassing all 64 counties. Across the state, district boundaries are aligned with county lines – some districts include just one county, while others include as many as seven. Each district has at least one district court location. The Supreme Court Chief Justice appoints a Chief Judge for each district to serve as the Chief Judicial Officer. In addition, each district has at least one other district court judge who may preside in more than one district court within that judicial district, particularly in rural areas of the state. There were 175 district judges during FY 2011.

District judges preside over felony criminal matters, civil claims in any amount, juvenile matters (including adoption, dependency and neglect matters, juvenile delinquency, and paternity actions), probate, mental health, divorce proceedings, and water cases. Additionally, district judges preside over jury trials, handle appeals from Colorado's municipal and county courts, and review decisions of administrative boards and agencies. District decisions may be appealed to the Colorado Court of Appeals and/or to the Colorado Supreme Court.

In Fiscal Year 2011 there were 246,728 case filings at the district court level (excluding water cases). Colorado's district courts were able to terminate 247,752 cases during that same 12-month period. During the past 10 years, district court filings have increased 50.23 percent, rising from 164,237 cases to the current level of filings. The greatest area of increase was due to an increase in civil distraint warrant (tax lien) filings during FY 2011.

Information specific to each of the 22 Judicial Districts, including contact information, is available at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/district/districts.htm>.

County Court

Colorado's county courts serve the citizens of each of the state's 64 counties. Every county has a county court served by one or more judges. County judges handle cases involving serious public safety issues such as misdemeanor cases, felony advisements, setting bonds, and preliminary hearings. County judges also issue search warrants and protection orders in cases involving domestic violence, preside over traffic cases, civil actions involving no more than $15,000, and conduct jury trials. Appeals from the county court may be made to the district court.

Small claims courts are divisions of county court. Individuals are allowed to argue their own cases and to have speedy decisions on civil matters involving no more than $7,500. Court sessions are held during the day or evening to accommodate the public. There are no jury trials in small claims courts, and magistrates sometimes hear these cases rather than a judge. No plaintiff may file more than two claims per month or eighteen claims per year in small claims court.

In Fiscal Year 2011, Colorado county courts had 505,501 cases filed and were able to terminate 499,320 cases during that same period. During the past 10 years, county court filings have increased 7.56 percent, rising from 469,993 to the current level of cases filed, with the greatest area of increase occurring in civil filings.

Specific information regarding each of the county courts is available at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/district/counties.htm>.

(a) Felony complaints represent the number of criminal cases, docketed as (CR), that begin in county court. The processing of felony cases varies between locations. The counties processing CR cases hear advisements. Some counties do preliminary hearings in county court before moving the case to district court for completion of the felony process. The case can also be reduced to a misdemeanor and remain in county court. The cases retain the same docket number in either county or district court.

(b) Does not include felony complaints.

Water Court

The Water Right Determination and Administration Act of 1969 created seven water divisions based upon the drainage patterns of major rivers in Colorado: the South Platte, Arkansas, Rio Grande, Gunnison, Colorado, White and San Juan rivers. Each water division is staffed by a division engineer appointed by the state engineer; a water judge appointed by the Colorado Supreme Court; a water referee appointed by the water judge; and a water clerk assigned by the district court.

Water judges are district judges who have jurisdiction in the determination of water rights, the use and administration of water, and all other water matters within the jurisdiction of the water division. There are no jury trials in water courts, and all appeals are filed directly with the Colorado Supreme Court.

All water courts operate under a standard case definition approved by the Colorado Supreme Court in 1981. This made possible the establishment of water court filing standards, which have been reported annually by water divisions since July 1, 1981.

Specific information regarding each of the seven water divisions is available at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/supct/supctwaterctindex.htm>.

Section VI: Office of Dispute Resolution

The Office of Dispute Resolution

The Office of Dispute Resolution (ODR) was created by the Colorado Dispute Resolution Act in 1983. The ODR's mission is to establish or make available dispute resolution programs and related services throughout the state, as designated by the Chief Justice of Colorado's Supreme Court. The courts were encouraged to expand use of the Dispute Resolution Act by HJR 97-1020.

ODR assists the court in designing, implementing, and administering dispute resolution programs, including multi-door courthouse programs which provide case screening to assist in matching cases to an appropriate dispute resolution process. ODR provides services, including mediation, parenting coordination/decision making, parenting plan facilitation, family group conferencing, and settlement conferences. ODR also manages the federal Access & Visitation Grant for the State of Colorado providing support and funding for dispute resolution programs targeting never-married parents with the goal of increasing parenting time.

In addition to providing services, ODR helps establish Colorado's dispute resolution policies; provides information to the public; collaborates with other individuals and organizations, including government agencies, state and local bar associations, community mediation centers, schools, private and public dispute resolution programs, and others to increase access to dispute resolution services; consults with state and local governments regarding the design, implementation, and administration of dispute resolution programs; and provides dispute resolution education and training.

ODR neutrals first began mediating cases in Fiscal Year 1985, with 54 Domestic Relations cases. In Fiscal Year 2011, an estimated 7,707 cases were reported from Colorado's 22 judicial districts. These cases included Domestic Relations, Civil, Criminal, Juvenile, Dependency and Neglect, child support enforcement, County Court, Small Claims, and Probate. Mediation services constituted approximately 99 percent of ODR's services in Fiscal Year 2011.

ODR receives a General Fund appropriation for administrative and program costs. Parties pay the mediator directly for services. ODR continues to provide reduced-fee services for qualifying indigent parties based on its General Fund appropriation and continued receipt of the Federal Access and Visitation Program grant funds. General information regarding the Office of Dispute Resolution is available at www.colroadoODR.org

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

In Fiscal Year 2011, the Judicial Branch had a budget of $351.1 million ($229.2 million in general funds and $121.9 million in cash and federal funds) and 3,407.4 full-time equivalent staff. The increase over FY2010 reflects $2.5 in salary-related statewide common policy adjustments, $3.2 for new judges and staff as well as problem-solving court staff and staff to develop an in-house e-filing system, and a net reduction of $2.7 in budget annualizations, reduced funding for the PERA rate swap and other common policy adjustments.

In FY2011, personnel costs of $246.6 million comprised the largest portion of the budget. Benefits accounted for $26.3 million, operating costs $12.5 million, victims' compensation and assistance programs $27.2 million dollars and $21.1 million was appropriated to mandated/interpreter costs for court appointed counsel, jury, interpreter and court costs. The remaining $17.1 million was appropriated in various areas including federal funds and grants, the collections program, training, courthouse furnishings, leased space and other miscellaneous items.

COLORADO JUDICIAL BRANCH COLLECTIONS

In Fiscal Year 2011, the state courts throughout Colorado collected $197.4 million in fines, fees, surcharges, and costs. Over fifty different statutory funds and purposes are supported by these revenues including the General Fund, Highway Users Trust Fund, Judicial Stabilization Fund, Offender Services Fund, and many others. Of the total revenues, $54.6 million went to crime victim related programs, $25.4 million of which were recoveries of restitution for losses incurred by individual victims. Collection efforts are concentrated in Collections Investigator offices in the local courts and probation departments. Under this statewide program, the Judicial Branch has implemented a variety of proactive strategies and procedures. Examples include: investigating offenders' assets and earnings; issuing garnishments and attachments; locating offenders who are attempting to avoid their obligations; intercepting state income tax refunds, lottery winnings, unclaimed property, and gambling winnings; suspending drivers licenses; and referring accounts to private collection agencies. In addition to the efforts of Collections Investigators, other system personnel also play key roles in the enforcement of payment including judges, clerks, probation officers, court administrators, district attorneys, and other criminal justice agencies.

Helping make victims whole through the recovery of restitution continues to be a major area of emphasis for the Colorado courts. The chart below shows restitution recoveries over the last ten years.

COLORADO PROBATION

Colorado Probation is Committed to Public Safety, Victim and Community Reparation through Offender Accountability, Skill and Competency Development and Services to the Communities of Colorado.

The above Statement of Common Ground was developed to clearly identify the critical functions of justice that unify all probation departments in carrying out their mission. Probation's commitment to these practices requires the implementation of innovative approaches to offender assessment, supervision, victim involvement and services to the community. As new research becomes available and as best practices evolve it is necessary to adapt Probation's practices to better serve the public and increase public safety for the residents of Colorado.

This year's statistical report reflects our commitment to improve results, protect the public, reduce the overall cost of the correctional system and increase services to victims of crime.

Probation Programs (Table 38, Table 47, Table 73)

The Colorado Judicial Department administers adult and juvenile probation in the state's 22 judicial districts. This includes 23 probation departments with over 50 separate probation locations throughout the state. The Division of Probation Services develops and publishes guidelines and standards for regular probation supervision and all intensive probation programs. Within the limits of statute and these state standards, each district is free to develop and structure programs that address the needs of the local court and the community. In all districts, offenders are assessed on risk and need factors. Based on this assessment, those placed on regular probation are put on minimum, medium or maximum supervision.

The number of adult offenders sentenced to state probation in FY 2011 was 28,903 and on June 30, 2011 there were 43,705 adult offenders on regular supervision. In FY 2011, 68 percent of adults completed regular state probation successfully. An additional 2,083 adult offenders were sentenced to an intensive program and 13,131 were sentenced to private probation supervision.

In Fiscal Year 2011, 4,637 juvenile offenders were sentenced to probation and on June 30, 2011 there were 5,676 juvenile offenders on supervision. In FY 2011, 74 percent of these juveniles completed regular state probation successfully. An additional 402 juvenile offenders were sentenced to Juvenile Intensive Supervision Probation (JISP).

Intensive Offender Programs

Intensive programs are created in statute or otherwise established through a specific appropriation and provide the court with community sentencing options for high-risk offenders. Whereas this was a notable approach to the development of the intensive programs, over time it has proven to be limiting as probation has recognized other high risk populations, such as serious economic crime and mentally ill offenders for who dedicated programs would be beneficial, as well as cost effective. Colorado Probation continues to explore options to manage these populations effectively. Intensive programs are offered only through state probation and parole. Three main goals drive intensive probation programs. They are to assess criminal risk and provide enhanced levels of supervision; target offenders' service needs that relate to ongoing criminal activity; and identify and make referrals for appropriate treatment and services to reduce criminal behavior. Offenders must meet certain criteria, based on assessed risk and need, before being screened for placement in an intensive probation program. These programs offer specialized assessments, offense specific treatment, electronic monitoring, cognitive skills training, educational assessments, and literacy and employment programs. Due to the significant number of supervision requirements, and the level of risk, the number of offenders assigned to an intensive programs' probation officer are capped at 18-30 offenders, depending on the program. These intensive offender programs include Adult Intensive Supervision; Juvenile Intensive Supervision; the Female Offender Program; and Sex Offender Intensive Supervision for Adults.

Adult Intensive Supervision Probation (Table 38, Table 80)

The Adult Intensive Supervision Probation (AISP) Program was implemented statewide in FY 1982, as a community sentencing alternative to incarceration for selected high risk adult offenders with extensive criminal histories. In FY 1997, as a result of its proven effectiveness, the General Assembly approved expansion of the program's average daily population from 750 to 1,500 offenders annually. The program is designed to deliver intensive case management that includes daily contact with the offender, increased levels of drug testing, curfews, electronic monitoring, home visits and required employment or educational/vocational efforts and attendance in treatment, as deemed necessary. The number of offenders assigned to an AISP officer is capped at 25. In FY2011 there were 1,379 offenders sentenced to AISP and on June 30, 2011 there were 1,443 on AISP. In FY 2011, 700 offenders (67%) successfully completed the program who might otherwise have served sentences to the Department of Corrections.

Juvenile Intensive Supervision Probation (Table 38, Table 92)

The Juvenile Intensive Supervision Probation (JISP) Program was implemented in FY 1991 as a community sentencing option for selected high risk juvenile offenders. As a result of its proven effectiveness the General Assembly approved expansion of the program sufficient to allow its existence in all 22 judicial districts. The program is designed to deliver intensive case management to include monitoring of school progress, referral for remedial educational assistance, home visits, electronic monitoring, drug testing, skill building and treatment services, as required. The number of juveniles assigned to a JISP officer is capped at 18. In FY2011 there were 402 juveniles sentenced to JISP and on June 30, 2011 there were 386 on JISP. In FY 2011, 223 juveniles (50%) successfully completed the program who might otherwise have served sentences in the Division of Youth Corrections.

Female Offender Program (Table 38, Table 88)

The Female Offender Program (FOP) was initially a grant funded pilot project developed in FY 1991, to intervene in the lives of high risk, substance abusing female offenders. In FY 1995 the General Assembly, based on the results of the pilot program, provided state funding. The program is designed to deliver intensive gender based case management to include frequent contact, skill building, regular employment or vocational/educational efforts, drug testing, home visits, electronic monitoring and participation in treatment, as required. The program was terminated in FY 2004 as a result of required budget reductions. Prior to the programs termination there was a 0% recidivism rate, for one year following termination from probation, for those offenders that successfully completed the program in FY 2001 and FY 2002. The FOP was re-funded to its previous level in FY 2005. The number of women assigned to each FOP officer is capped at 30. In FY 2011 there were 218 female offenders sentenced to FOP and on June 30, 2011 there were 258 on FOP. In FY 2011, 112 women (70%) successfully completed the program who might otherwise have served sentences in the Department of Corrections.

Sex Offender Intensive Supervision Probation (Table 38, Table 84)

The Sex Offender Intensive Supervision Probation (SOISP) Program is designed to provide the highest level of supervision to adult sex offenders who are placed on probation. Although initially created in statute in FY 1998 primarily for lifetime supervision cases, based on the risk posed by those offenders, the legislature made a significant change to the statute in FY 2001. All felony sex offenders convicted on or after July 1, 2001, are statutorily mandated to be supervised by the SOISP program. The program design includes a capped caseload of 25 offenders per SOISP officer.

Adult sex offending behavior is a considered to be a life-long problem in which the goal is not "curing" the offender, but rather management or control of the assaultive behavior. The State of Colorado has adopted a model of containment in the supervision and management of sex offenders. Depending on the offender, elements of containment may include severely restricted activities, daily contact with a probation officer, curfew checks, home visitation, employment visitation and monitoring, drug and alcohol screening, and/or sex offense specific treatment to include the use of polygraph testing.

SOISP consists of three phases, each with specific criteria that must be met prior to a reduction in the level of supervision. In FY 2011 there were 491 offenders sentenced to SOISP and on June 30, 2011 there were 1,416 on SOISP. In FY 2011 the program successfully terminated 135 offenders (46%) from the SOISP program who might otherwise have served sentences in the Department of Corrections. It is important to note that approximately half of the SOISP probationers are serving indeterminate sentences (minimum of 10 years), so fewer in this group are eligible for termination each year.

Other Probation Programs

Private Probation (Table 38, Table 60)

Chief Justice Directive 04-03 (originally CJD 96-05), defines the priority use of probation resources and defines the circumstances under which districts may contract with private probation. Part III of the directive states that districts may enter into agreements with public or private entities for the provision of probation services, including investigation services and the supervision of lower risk adult probationers. Although not every judicial district has access to or utilizes a private provider, Colorado Probation has contracted for private probation services since FY 1996, due in part to the inadequacy of staff resources to supervise all offenders sentenced to probation at the level required by Standard. In FY2011 there were 13,131 offenders sentenced to private probation. Of these 7,998 were on supervision for a DUI/DWAI while 5,133 were sentenced for some other criminal offense. On June 30, 2011 there were 19,992 offenders being managed under private probation service contracts. Of these, 12,055 were on supervision for a DUI/DWAI while 7,937 were on supervision for some other criminal offense. In FY2011 private probation successfully terminated 8,582 DUI/DWAI offenders (85%) and another 4,202 criminal offenders (80%). By utilizing private probation for these lower risk offenders, State probation departments can concentrate their resources on the higher risk offenders.

DUI/DWAI Offenders (Table 38, Table 101)

In FY 2007 the Alcohol and Drug Driving Safety (ADDS) Program was fully integrated within each probation department. This integration provides an enhanced ability to deliver supervision for the higher risk portion of the Drinking/Driving offending population. The ADDS program conducts alcohol/drug evaluations and makes treatment recommendations for offenders convicted of driving under the influence of, or impaired by, drugs or alcohol. In FY 2011 the program completed 22,260 DUI/DWAI Evaluations for Colorado's county courts, excluding Denver County. In FY2011 there were 5,379 offenders sentenced to monitoring. On June 30, 2011 there were 7,420 DUI/DWAI offenders being monitored by State Probation. In FY2011 state probation successfully terminated 5,533 (74%) DUI monitored offenders. Other DUI/DWAI offenders who were sentenced to probation supervision are included in this report in the Adult Probation section but are not separately identified.

Victim Services (Table 96)

In FY 1993 Colorado's General Assembly enacted victims' rights legislation for victims of personal crime. In 1996, the Victims' Rights Act was amended to require Colorado Probation departments to provide victim services. Each of the state's 23 probation departments is providing services to victims when the offender is placed on probation. In addition to provision of referrals and general assistance, in FY 2011 Probation Victim Assistance Coordinators sent 16,482 letters to victims of crime informing them of their right to receive notification; of these victims seventeen percent (2,807) requested receipt of the statutorily required notification. There were a total of 12,417 critical probation notification events in which victims were notified.

Key: Successful Terminations: This number is exclusively state successful terminations.

Unsuccessful Terminations: This column includes those probationers who were revoked or absconded. A revocation is defined as a termination from probation supervision for a technical violation, new misdemeanor, or new felony. A revocation to Community Corrections is NOT included in this section. These offenders are not included on this table as they are still under the supervision and jurisdiction of probation. Absconded refers to probationers who became fugitives and are no longer compliant with probation supervision.

Total Terminations: This table includes: revocations, absconders and successful terminations from probation supervision. Additional types of state adult probation closures are included in Table 48.

Note: Percentages may not total 100 percent because of rounding.

Successful/Unsuccessful Terminations

Note: Approximately one-half of the SOISP probationers are serving indeterminate sentences (minimum of 10 years). Therefore, it is important to consider terminations within the context of the active SOISP caseload. Many more probationers are being successfully supervised (1,416) on SOISP than are terminating unsuccessfully (160) as reflected below in the 6/30/2011 active caseload and termination table.

Key: Successful Terminations: This number is exclusively state successful terminations.

Unsuccessful Terminations: This column includes those probationers who were revoked or absconded. A revocation is defined as a termination from probation supervision for a technical violation, new misdemeanor, or new felony. A revocation to Community Corrections is NOT included in this section. These offenders are not included on this table as they are still under the supervision and jurisdiction of probation. Absconded refers to probationers who became fugitives and are no longer compliant with probation supervision.

Total Terminations: This table includes: revocations, absconders and successful terminations from probation supervision. Additional types of state adult probation closures are included in Table 103.

Note: Percentages may not total 100 percent because of rounding.

Section IX: Glossary of Terms

Probation

Absconder:	Refers to probationers who become fugitives and are no longer compliant with probation supervision.
Adjudication:	Refers to a juvenile case indicating that the charges have been proven or the juvenile has pled guilty to committing a delinquent act. The equivalent for adult offenders is "conviction."
Administrative Investigations:	A supplemental report to a Pre- Sentence Report addressing additional cases.
Administrative Closure:	Includes no services provided to an offender (i.e. in custody in another jurisdiction).
Administrative Client Risk Level or Active:	An assigned supervision level indicating lower supervision need by probation because of other more intensive "supervision" being provided elsewhere (such as jail or an inpatient treatment facility) or minimal conditions of the sentence remain and more intensive supervision is no longer necessary.
Change of Venue:	Occurs when a delinquent juvenile has been transferred from one Colorado judicial district, where the offense occurred, to another one where the juvenile will receive supervision. Change of Venue typically occurs because the juvenile resides in a jurisdiction other than where the offense took place.
Client Risk Level:	Probation offenders are classified using a risk assessment instrument. The instrument used for adults are the LSI (Level of Supervision Inventory), the SARA (Spousal Assault Risk Assessment) and the Oregon Sex Offender assessment instrument. The juvenile instrument is the CYO- LSI (Colorado Young Offender Level of Service Inventory) and the O'Brien Sex Offender Assessment is used for juvenile sex offenders. These instruments determine the level of supervision for an offender (e.g. Maximum, Medium, and Minimum).
Courtesy Transfers:	A case that has closed in the supervising jurisdiction and returned to the originating or sentencing district.
Courtesy Supervision:	Occurs when an adult offender has received a probation sentence in one Colorado judicial district but will be supervised by the probation department in another Colorado judicial district because they reside in that jurisdiction.
Community Corrections:	A community-based sentence that is more restricted than probation supervision but less restrictive than a secure facility. A community corrections sentence typically includes both a residential and non-residential component with supervision from a case manager. Because probation maintains jurisdiction over offenders sentenced to community corrections, they are also monitored by a probation officer.
Deferred Judgment and Sentence/Adjudication:	Refers to a case status in which the offender, (adult or juvenile) has entered a plea of guilty and, through an agreement with the district attorney and consent of the court, the case is continued for a set period of time. The offender is usually supervised by probation and upon successful completion of the deferred judgment the case is dismissed.
Direct File:	The District Attorney files a case in which a juvenile is prosecuted as an adult.
Intake:	The initial process for setting up the supervision of probationers in the absence of a pre-sentence investigation. The intake process typically entails a review of the Terms and Conditions of the probation sentence, an assessment of risk and needs, and initial referral for services.
Interstate:	Refers to offenders who have committed crimes in a state other than where they reside. These offenders apply to have their supervision transferred to their state of residence and are screened by the Interstate Compact Office prior to acceptance of supervision.
Investigations:	An investigative process conducted by probation officers prior to sentencing on a criminal offense. Common grounds for relief under the writ include a conviction based on illegally obtained evidence, a denial of effective assistance of counsel, or a conviction by a jury that was improperly selected and impaneled. Use of the writ is not limited to criminal matters. It is also available in civil matters, as, for example, to challenge a person's custody of a child or the institutionalization of a person declared incompetent." (http://dictionary.lp.findlaw.com)
Interlocutory:	An interlocutory appeal is one which is not determinable of the controversy, but which is necessary for a suitable adjudication of the merits. Colorado Appellate Rule 4.1 governs interlocutory appeals in criminal cases and provides that the state may file an interlocutory appeal in the Supreme Court from a district court ruling granting a motion in advance of the trial by the defendant for the return of property and to suppress evidence or to suppress an extra-judicial confession or admission. This is only one example of an interlocutory appeal.
Interrogatories:	Pursuant to Article VI, section 3 of the state Constitution, the Court may be required to answer "important questions upon solemn occasions" propounded by the Governor, the Senate, or the House of Representatives. These questions are called "interrogatories."
Judicial Discipline or Disability:	Judges who are alleged to have engaged in misconduct or to be suffering from a disability which is or is likely to become of a permanent character may be subject to judicial discipline. The Colorado Commission on Judicial Discipline investigates such allegations and, if it concludes that the judge has engaged in misconduct or is disabled, it may recommend to the Supreme Court a range of sanctions, including removal of the judge from office, retirement of the judge for a disability, reprimand or censure of the judge, or assessment of costs against the judge.
Original Proceedings:	Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure 21 provides the Colorado Supreme Court with discretion to exercise original jurisdiction in extraordinary circumstances where no other remedy is available. Original proceedings are used to test whether the trial court is proceeding without jurisdiction or in excess of its jurisdiction and to review a serious abuse of discretion when an appellate remedy would be inadequate. The remedy in an original proceeding takes the form of a special mandate from the Supreme Court addressed to an individual, official body, or lower court and may be used to restrain or compel the acts of a trial court. The Court issues a "rule to show cause" why the relief requested in the petition should not be granted. After considering the written briefs, the Supreme Court either makes the rule absolute (grants the relief requested) or discharges the rule (denies the relief requested).

Petitions in Certiorari:	A writ of common law origin issued by a superior to an inferior court requiring the latter to produce a certified record of a particular case tried therein. The writ is generally issued so that the issuing court may inspect the proceedings and determine whether there have been any irregularities. Like the United States Supreme Court, the Colorado Supreme Court uses the writ as a discretionary device to choose which cases it wishes to hear. Colorado Appellate Rules 49-58 govern writs of certiorari.
Reapportionment:	Article 5, section 48 of the state Constitution provides that after the decennial federal census, the senatorial districts and representative districts shall be established, revised, or altered, and the members of the Senate and the House of Representatives apportioned among them, by a Colorado reapportionment commission. The commission must publish a preliminary plan for reapportionment of the members of the General Assembly and shall hold public hearings thereon. After the completion of such hearings, the commission must finalize its plan and submit the same to the Colorado Supreme Court for review and determination as to whether the plan meets constitutional standards. The Supreme Court must either approve the plan or return the plan and the court's reasons for disapproval to the commission. If the plan is returned, the commission shall revise and modify it to conform to the court's requirements and resubmit the plan to the court. If the plan is approved by the court, it shall be filed with the secretary of state for implementation.
Request for Stay Pending Appeal:	A stay is a suspension of the case or some designated proceedings within it. Colorado Appellate Rule 8 governs stays pending appeal.
Rule 21.1:	This rule of appellate procedure governs certification of questions of law to the Colorado Supreme Court by the United States Supreme Court, federal courts of appeals, federal district courts, and the federal Court of Claims. Under the rule, a certifying court may request that the Colorado Supreme Court answer a question of law if there is involved in any proceeding before the certifying court a question of state law which may be determinative of the cause pending and to which it appears that there is no controlling precedent in the Colorado Supreme Court's decisions.
Special Concurrences:	An opinion in which a justice expresses agreement with the particular result in a given case while objecting to a line of reasoning. The special concurrence may relate to the majority opinion in its entirety or to the result only.
