Court Summons: Eviction / Forcible Entry and Detainer

1. Eviction Case

You (the Defendant) are now a part of a court case to decide if you should be evicted from your rental unit.

Along with this summons, you will get a document called a Complaint. The Complaint will explain why the Landlord (the Plaintiff) is evicting you (grounds/claims) and what they want the court to do (relief/damages).

2. Your Next Steps

You must attend an introductory meeting and / or file a written answer.

a) Return Date

On: *(date)*_____

At: (time) ______ at the Court's address above.

Depending on the outcome of the Return Date meeting, the Court may schedule the case for a formal Trial.

You can appear by phone or video for court events. See Section 7 for more information.

b) Written Answer

By the end of the day, on the date above, you must submit an Answer. A form will be provided with this summons.

Your Answer to the court should explain:

- Why you think you have a right to stay in your rental unit,
- Whether what your landlord says is true or not true,
- Whether you have any legal defenses,
- Whether you think you were given proper notice of the landlord's reasons for wanting to evict you, and
- Whether you have a reason to file a case against the landlord for something they did (called a counterclaim or crossclaim).

c) Submit Forms Online

- Create an account at: www.jbits.courts.state.co.us/efiling For cases in Denver County Court, file forms by email to: DccCivilAnswers@DenverCountyCourt.Org
- 2) Submit your completed forms (efile) and send them to the Landlord (eservice).
- Pay with a card or file forms JDF 205 Motion to Waive Fees and JDF 206 Order re Court Fees, provided with this Summons.

If you receive certain public benefits, you may automatically qualify for a fee waiver. Then use form JDF 209 – Notice of Fee Waiver.

4) View your case file and receive notifications when new filings are submitted.

Or, bring the completed paperwork with you to the Return Date, or mail/deliver it to the court before then. Then mail a copy of those forms to the Landlord.

3. Non-Payment of Rent: Unfixed Repairs

If you have not paid your rent because the landlord did not repair something in your rental unit, the Court will require you to pay the rent you owe to the Court, minus any money you have spent repairing your rental unit.

This must be paid at the time you file your Answer along with form JDF 104 – Unliveable Conditions at Home. JDF 104 has a section to request that this payment be waived, if you cannot afford it.

4. Consequences

If you do not file a written Answer, or attend the Return Date meeting, the judge will not know if you have any defenses and may enter a default judgment against you.

This means you may be evicted and have to pay the landlord the money you owe.

In other words:

If you do not respond to the landlord's complaint by filing a written answer with the court on or before the date and time in this summons or appearing in court at the date and time in this summons, the judge may enter a default judgment against you in favor of your landlord for possession. A default judgment for possession means that you will have to move out, and it may mean that you will have to pay money to the landlord. In your answer to the court, you can state why you believe you have a right to remain in the property, whether you admit or deny the landlord's factual allegations against you, and whether you believe you were given proper notice of the landlord's reasons for terminating your tenancy before you got this summons. When you file your answer, you must pay a filing fee to the clerk of the court. If you are claiming that the landlord's failure to repair a residential premises is a defense to the landlord's allegation of nonpayment of rent, the court will require you to pay into the registry of the court, at the time of filing your answer, the rent due less any expenses you have incurred based upon the landlord's failure to repair the residential premise; unless the court determines that you qualify to have this requirement waived due to your income.

C.R.S. § 13-40-111(1).
