ORDER RE: IN PERSON APPEARANCES IN COUNTY COURT

Pursuant to Chief Judge Order 21-09, all proceedings in County Court shall be conducted in person with the following limited exceptions:

1. Where authorized by Criminal Rule 43(e), and then only with written authorization of the Court pursuant to a timely filed written Motion. See Crim. Rules, 43(e)(4) and 47(b). No party should presume they are authorized to appear electronically simply because they have filed such a Motion. Failure on the part of a defendant to appear in person when not otherwise authorized will result in the issuance of an arrest warrant.
2. Video Advisements held pursuant to Criminal Rule 5.
3. Named Victims may elect to appear via WebEx, phone or in person at any critical stage of the proceedings and should contact the specific Division for information on how to appear remotely. See C.R.S. 24-4.1-302.5(1)(b).

Pursuant to Chief Judge Orders 07-01 and 20-25, and C.R.C.P. 121, 1-7 all participants, witnesses and viewers of any proceeding are prohibited from re-broadcasting, streaming, recording, "screen capturing" or otherwise saving any portion of the Hearing. Any person who violates this Order will be subject to a punitive contempt citation punishable by up to six months in jail. See C.R.C.P. 407(d)(1).

IT IS THUS ORDERED, 12 July 2021.
