

Heather L. Allen is an attorney mediator who specializes in family law dispute resolution. She earned her Bachelor of Arts from Michigan State University in a Multi-Disciplinary Social Science, Pre-Law program in addition to a minor in Psychology. Heather earned her Juris Doctorate in 2000 from the University of Denver College of Law. She started the Allen Family Law Firm, P.C. in 2006 and continues to manage that practice. Heather is a trained mediator and has mediated for the last seventeen years. Family law matters have been her specialty for the past twenty-three years and she is fully capable of assisting parties resolve their conflicts outside of the courtroom.