Pamala Campbell holds a master's degree in counseling psychology from SUNY Albany and has more than 30 years of experience in professional counseling, mediation/arbitration, conflict resolution, family matters, parenting coordination, addiction, and domestic violence and sexual assault.

In 2014, she became a certified Mediator and established her own business, Renewed Hope, a Better Business Bureau (BBB)-accredited business certified in online dispute resolution. Her practice provides professional services in Colorado statewide and regionally, in person or through an integrated web-based platform.

Pamala is a contract Mediator for the State of Colorado and serves as a Mediator/Arbitrator for the Better Business Bureau (BBB) in Small Claims Court in the 4th Judicial District. She has successfully mediated various cases involving domestic relations, custody, divorce, personal injury, landlord/tenant disputes, community matters, contract disputes, and workplace/employment issues.

In addition to her private mediation practice, she has conducted several training sessions designed for teachers and health professionals focusing on facilitative mediation skills and the impact of cultural bias on the mediation process.

Renewed Hope is committed to creating an inclusive and safe environment for all parties, especially underserved populations and those who may feel uneasy interacting with legal professionals.
