CHIEF JUSTICE MÁRQUEZ and JUSTICE BOATRRIGHT would grant as to the following issues:

Whether Colorado’s Rape Shield statute inherently includes an expansive “motive to lie” exception such that the defendant’s assertions that the child victim allegedly engaged in “sexualized play” with other children, and the defendant allegedly confronted the child victim about that play at some unspecified time, created a sufficient basis for the defense to admit evidence of the same to show the child victim’s potential motive to fabricate the allegations against him.
