20th Judicial District announces District Court vacancy

Commission sets date to select nominees

The Twentieth Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet on April 29, 2025, at the Boulder County Combined Court, 1777 6th St, Boulder, CO 80302, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of district court for the Twentieth Judicial District (Boulder County). The vacancy will be created by the retirement of the Honorable Ingrid S. Bakke. The vacancy will occur on July 12, 2025.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of the Twentieth Judicial District at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for five years. The current annual salary for this position is $198,798.24. The initial term of office of a district judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent district judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of six years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Brian Boatright, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203, and the office of the Court Executive, Tracey Sogi, 1777 6th St., Boulder, CO 80302. Applications are also available on the court's home page at coloradojudicial.gov/careers/judge-opportunities.

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. on April 14, 2025. Late applications will not be considered.

Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than April 7, 2025, by 4 p.m.

The members of the nominating commission for the Twentieth Judicial District are:

Elaina Shively, Andrew Macdonald, James Hooton, Cynthia Mitchell, Claudine Schneider, Tejwant Mangat and Laura Sparks, all of Boulder.
