

COLORADO JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT	MAY 1, 2025
COLORADO JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR CRIMINAL HISTORY CHECK CHECKLIST	PAGE 1

Contractor Criminal History Check (“CHC”) Checklist

Note: This tool summarizes certain requirements but does not limit the requirement contained in the [Judicial Department Criminal History Check Policy or the applicable Judicial Contract(s).]

- ☐ Only individuals providing services under a Judicial contract require a passing background check to provide services.
- ☐ Conduct initial criminal history check using either
 - ☐ Your own commercially reasonable background check provider OR
 - ☐ A Judicial Affiliated CHC Provider: American Data Bank
<http://cojudicialcompliance.com/>
- ☐ If conducting your own criminal history checks through an appropriate service provider, ensure the results meet or exceed Judicial’s criminal history check standards in the policy linked above
 - ☐ Vendors shall be responsible for querying any individual who is the subject of a CHC on the National Sex Offender Public Website (<https://www.nsopw.gov/>).
- ☐ Identify only Suitable employees (or subcontractor employees if required by your Judicial Contract) in the “Forum” Contract Management System before the individual provides any services to Judicial. See Forum Registering and Onboarding Resources for details.
 - ☐ Non-suitable employees cannot provide services unless the employee is entitled to an appeal(s) process and a successful appeal is made. No services can be provided during pendency of appeal.
- ☐ Maintain and enforce an Employee Disclosure Policy, immediately removing individuals identified as “Suitable” if they become “Non-Suitable” during the course of providing services to the Department.
 - ☐ Individuals who become “Non-Suitable” should be removed both from providing services and from your agency’s contacts list in Forum.
- ☐ Re-check criminal history every three years.

Contact the Colorado Judicial Department’s Vendor Liaison Team at vendorsupport@judicial.state.co.us with any questions.