New District Court judgeship created in the 17th Judicial District

Commission sets date to select nominees

The 17th Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet May 19, 2025, at the Adams County Justice Center, 1100 Judicial Center Dr., Brighton, CO 80601, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of district judge for the 17th Judicial District (Adams and Broomfield counties). The new district court judgeship was created pursuant to SB25-024 and is effective July 1, 2025.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of the 17th Judicial District at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for five years. The current annual salary for this position is $198,798. The initial term of office of a district judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent district judge, if retained by the voters, has a term of six years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Brian Boatright, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203, and the office of the Court Executive, Patricia Kmita, 303-654-3205. Applications are also available on the court's home page at <https://www.coloradojudicial.gov/careers/judge-opportunities>. The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than May 7th, 2025, by 4:00 p.m. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than April 30th, 2025, by 4:00 p.m.

The members of the nominating commission for the 17th Judicial District are Dr. Ajenai Clemmons of Northglenn, Damon Barry, Martin Flaum and Jennifer Hostetter of Westminster, and Jonathan Datz, Andy Kramer, and Shivam Malhotra, all of Broomfield.
