15th Judicial District announces County Court vacancy

Commission sets date to select nominees

The 15th Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet on June 17, 2025, via WebEx video conferencing, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county court for the 15th Judicial District (Baca County). The vacancy will be created by the appointment of the Honorable Lyudmyla Lishchuk to the Morgan County Court bench.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of Baca County at the time of investiture and have graduated high school or attained the equivalent of a high school education as indicated by the Department of Education, based upon the record made on the General Education Development test. The annual salary for this position is $48,750, and it is a 25 percent position. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Brian Boatright, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203, and the office of the Court Executive, Diane Crow, Prowers County Combined Court, 301 S. Main, Suite 300, Lamar, CO 81052. Applications are also available on the court's home page at coloradojudicial.gov/careers/judge-opportunities.

The completed application must be e-mailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. on June 17, 2025. Late applications will not be considered.

Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than June 10, 2025, by 4 p.m.

The members of the nominating commission for the 15th Judicial District are:

Timothy Hume of Walsh; Margaret Jolly of Kit Carson; Annessa Stulp, Darla Specht, Kim Verhoeff and Lanie Meyers-Mireless, all of Lamar.
