18th Judicial District announces Arapahoe County Court vacancy Commission sets date to select nominees

The 18th Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet on January 6, 2026, at the Arapahoe County Justice Center at 7325 S. Potomac Street, Centennial, CO 80112 to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county judge for Arapahoe County. The vacancy will be created by the retirement of the Honorable Michael J. Roche. The vacancy will occur on February 16, 2026.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of Arapahoe County at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado. The current annual salary for this position is $195,001.25. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice William Hood III, at 2 E. 14th Ave, Denver, CO 80203; and the office of the court executive, Jenni Turnidge, and Audrey Smith, deputy court executive, 303-645-6600.

Applications are also available on the court's home page at <http://www.courts.state.co.us/Careers/Judge.cfm>

The completed application must be emailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. on December 22, 2025. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than December 15, 2025, by 4 p.m.

The members of the nominating commission for the 18th Judicial District are:

M. Michael Cooke of Englewood; Emily Valdez and Hope Szypulski of Centennial; and Eric Nesbitt, Becky Hogan, MariaJose Delgado and Thomas Hernandez, all of Aurora.
