4th Judicial District announces County Court Vacancy

Commission sets date to select nominees

The 4th Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet on Feb 2, 2026, at the Teller County Courthouse, 101 W. Bennett Avenue, Cripple Creek, CO 80813, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county judge for the 4th Judicial District (Teller County). The vacancy will occur due to the retirement of the Honorable Theresa L. Kilgore, effective March 1, 2026.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of Teller County at the time of investiture and have graduated high school or attained the equivalent of a high school education as indicated by the Department of Education, based upon the record made on the General Education Development test. The annual salary for this position is $185,251.19, and it is a 95 percent position. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Brian Boatright, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203, and the office of the Court Executive, Scott Sosebee, 270 S. Tejon St., Colorado Springs, CO 80903.

Applications are also available on the court's home page at <https://www.coloradojudicial.gov/careers/judge-opportunities>.

The completed application must be emailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4:00 p.m. on Jan. 12, 2026. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than Jan. 5, 2026, by 4:00 p.m.

The members of the nominating commission for the 4th Judicial District are:
Michael Allen of Monument; Paul Hurcomb, Roland Rainey, and Misty Plowright, all of Colorado Springs.
