New District Court judgeship created in the 19th Judicial District

Commission sets date to select nominees

The 19th Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet on April 24, 2026, at the Weld County Courthouse, 901 9th Ave., Greeley, CO 80631, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of district court for the 19th Judicial District (Weld County). The new district court judgeship was created pursuant to SB25-024 and is effective July 1, 2026

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of the 19th Judicial District at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for five years. The current annual salary for this position is $203,768.20. The initial term of office of a district judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent district judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of six years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice William Hood, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203, and the office of the Court Executive, Marci Hoffman, at 970-475-2500.

Applications are also available on the court's home page at coloradojudicial.gov/careers/judge-opportunities.

The completed application must be emailed to the address listed in the instructions below no later than 4 p.m. on April 9, 2026. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than April 2, 2026, by 4 p.m.

The members of the nominating commission for the 19th Judicial District are:

Annette Martinez of Windsor; and Susie Velasquez, Araceli Calderon, Brandi Nieto, Kevin Strobel, Brynne Gant, and Solomon Little Owl, all of Greeley.
