New County Court judgeship created in the 21st Judicial District

Commission sets date to select nominees

The 21st Judicial District Nominating Commission will meet on April 21, 2026, at the Mesa County Justice Center, 125 N Spruce St., Grand Junction, CO 81501, to interview and select nominees for appointment by the governor to the office of county judge for Mesa County. The new county court judgeship was created pursuant to SB25-024 and is effective July 1, 2026.

To be eligible, the applicant must be a qualified elector of Mesa County at the time of investiture and must have been admitted to the practice of law in Colorado. The current annual salary for this position is $195,001.25. The initial term of office of a county judge is a provisional term of two years; thereafter, the incumbent county judge, if approved by the voters, has a term of four years.

Application forms are available from the office of the ex officio chair of the nominating commission, Justice Maria Berkenkotter, 2 E. 14th Ave., Denver, CO 80203; and the office of the Court Executive, Will Sightler, 970-257-3632, 125 N Spruce St., Grand Junction, CO 81501.

Applications are available on the court's home page at www.coloradojudicial.gov/careers/judge-opportunities.

The completed application must be emailed to the address listed in the instructions below by 4 p.m. on April 7, 2026. Late applications will not be considered. Any person wishing to suggest a candidate to fill the vacancy may do so by letter to be submitted to any member of the nominating commission, with a copy to the ex officio chair, no later than March 31, 2026, by 4 p.m.

The members of the nominating commission for the 21st Judicial District are: David Combs, of Clifton; and Denise Rodriguez, Cynthia Graves, Ruth Swift, Felicia Peña, Tearsa Olson, and Daniella Correa Shively, all of Grand Junction.
