

Wedding/Civil Union Ceremonies Performed by Judicial Officers

To arrange for a ceremony performed by Judicial Officer:

Step 1: Go to the Jefferson County Clerk and Recorder's Office, 100 Jefferson County Parkway, Golden, CO 80401, Suite 2560 and obtain a marriage or civil union license.

- Cost is $30.00, and licenses are valid for 35 days, so plan accordingly.
- The Clerk and Recorder phone number is (303) 271-8121.

Please note: In Colorado, a wedding or civil union does not need to be presided over by a Minister or a Judicial Officer to be official. The Clerk and Recorder's Office, or the couple themselves can certify a marriage or civil union.

Choose one of the following Options below:

Option 1: If you decide you would like a Judicial Officer to perform your ceremony, Judicial Officer availability is limited to NOON during regular business days, Monday through Friday.

1. Noon ceremonies should report to the Magistrate Clerk's lobby on the 2nd floor at 11:30 am.
2. Please remember to bring your license, and $60.00 (cash only).
3. No appointment is necessary.

Option 2: If you decide you would like a Judicial Officer to perform your ceremony, Judicial Officer availability is limited to 5:00 pm by appointment only during regular business days, Monday through Friday, at the courthouse.

1. Appointments are required, so please contact one of the Judicial Officers from the list below to officiate.
2. 5:00 pm ceremonies should check in with the Duty staff of Courtroom 110 at 4:30 pm.
3. Please remember to bring your license, and $100.00 (cash only).
