ADVANCE SHEET HEADNOTE

2026 CO 58

Nos. 26SA122, 26SA123, 26SA157, In re Ballot Title Nos. 241, 242, 328 – Proposed Ballot Title Initiatives – Single Subject Requirement.

In these three cases, the supreme court reviewed the actions of the Title Board in (1) setting the titles and the ballot titles and submission clauses for Initiative 2025-2026 #241 (“Initiative #241”) and Initiative 2025-2026 #242 (“Initiative #242”) and (2) declining to set a title for Initiative 2025-2026 #328 (“Initiative #328”). Each of these cases presents, among other issues, the question of whether an initiative violates the single subject requirement when its effectiveness is conditioned on the passage of a separate initiative.

The court now concludes that an initiative violates the single subject requirement in these circumstances and that, therefore, Initiative #241, Initiative #242, and Initiative #328 run afoul of article V, section 1(5.5) of the Colorado Constitution and section 1-40-106.5, C.R.S. (2025). Accordingly, the court reverses the actions of the Title Board in case nos. 26SA122 and 26SA123 and affirms the action of the Title Board in case no. 26SA157.

JUSTICE GABRIEL delivered the Opinion of the Court.

¶1 In these three cases, we review the actions of the Title Board in (1) setting the titles and the ballot titles and submission clauses for Initiative 2025-2026 #241 (“Initiative #241”) and Initiative 2025-2026 #242 (“Initiative #242”) and (2) declining to set a title for Initiative 2025-2026 #328 (“Initiative #328”). Each of these cases presents, among other issues, the question of whether an initiative violates the single subject requirement when its effectiveness is conditioned on the passage of a separate initiative.

¶2 We now conclude that an initiative violates the single subject requirement in these circumstances and that, therefore, Initiative #241, Initiative #242, and Initiative #328 run afoul of article V, section 1(5.5) of the Colorado Constitution and section 1-40-106.5, C.R.S. (2025). Accordingly, we reverse the actions of the Title Board in case nos. 26SA122 and 26SA123 and affirm the action of the Title Board in case no. 26SA157. In light of this disposition, we need not address the other issues raised in the petitions for review now before us. (The text, title, and ballot title and submission clauses for Initiative #241 and Initiative #242 and the text of Initiative #328 are attached as appendices to this opinion.)

I. Facts and Procedural History

¶3 We begin by discussing the pertinent facts and procedural histories of each of the cases now before us.

A. Initiative #241 and Initiative #242

¶4 Pursuant to section 1-40-106, C.R.S. (2025), proponents-respondents Tanya Nathan and Lindsey Rasmussen submitted proposed Initiative #241 and proposed Initiative #242 to the Title Board for a setting of a title and submission clause. Initiative #241 proposed an amendment to the Colorado Constitution and a change to the Colorado Revised Statutes that would replace the constitutional independent congressional redistricting commission with an identical statutory independent congressional redistricting commission, but this initiative was expressly conditioned on the passage of Initiative #242. Initiative #242, in turn, proposed a change to the Colorado Revised Statutes, creating a new temporary congressional district map to be used in the 2028 and 2030 congressional elections. Initiative #242 was conversely conditioned on the passage of Initiative #241.

¶5 The Board conducted initial public hearings in both cases, unanimously concluded that both initiatives contained a single subject, and set the following titles:

Initiative #241

An amendment to the Colorado Constitution and a change to the Colorado Revised Statutes replacing the constitutional independent congressional redistricting commission with an identical statutory independent congressional redistricting commission if a ballot measure creating a new temporary congressional district map to be used in 2028 and 2030 congressional elections is approved by a vote of the people.

Initiative #242

A change to the Colorado Revised Statutes creating a new temporary congressional district map to be used in 2028 and 2030 congressional elections if a ballot measure replacing the constitutional independent congressional redistricting commission with an identical statutory independent congressional redistricting commission is approved by a vote of the people.

¶6 Thereafter, petitioner Robert Balink filed motions for rehearing in both cases, and by a two-to-one vote, the Board denied these motions in their entirety.

¶7 Pursuant to section 1-40-107(2), C.R.S. (2025), Balink now petitions this court for review in both cases, arguing that Initiative #241 and Initiative #242 violate the single subject rule in multiple ways, including by conditioning the effective date of each on the simultaneous passage of the other. Balink further contends that the measures are incomplete and misleading in a number of ways that are not ultimately pertinent to our decision.

B. Initiative #328

¶8 Pursuant to section 1-40-106, proponents-petitioners John Brackney and Robyn Carnes submitted proposed Initiative #328 to the Title Board for a setting of a title and submission clause. This initiative is, in form, nearly identical to Initiative #242. Initiative #328 proposes a map of new temporary congressional districts (a different map from the one proposed in Initiative #242) and, like Initiative #242, provides that it will take effect only if Initiative #241 is adopted.

¶9 The Board conducted a hearing on whether to set a title for Initiative #328 but reached a different result from the one that it reached regarding Initiative #242. Specifically, by a two-to-one vote, the Board denied the title setting, concluding, among other things, that the measure did not constitute a single subject because it necessarily relied on the passage of a separate ballot measure and, therefore, the Board lacked jurisdiction to set a title.

¶10 Brackney and Carnes filed a motion for rehearing, but by a different two-to-one vote, the Board denied that motion in its entirety.

¶11 Pursuant to section 1-40-107(2), Brackney and Carnes now petition this court for review, arguing that for the same reasons that the Board found that Initiative #242 contains a single subject, Initiative #328 likewise contains a single subject. Brackney and Carnes further contend that the Board erred in declining to set a title and submission clause based on the Board's view, allegedly expressed for the first time during consideration of the motion for rehearing, that it did not understand what the initiative did. Brackney and Carnes contend that it was improper for the Board to raise new concerns at the rehearing stage and that, in any event, the initiative is easy to comprehend, for the same reasons that the Board had no difficulty understanding the meaning of Initiative #242. (The Board disputes the characterization that it raised a new issue during the rehearing, contending that it relied on the same issue that it had raised at the initial hearing; regardless, the Board contends that it may reconsider its jurisdiction at any time.)

II. Analysis

¶12 We begin by setting forth the applicable standard of review. Next, we lay out the general principles concerning the single subject requirement. We then apply those principles to the cases before us.

A. Standard of Review

¶13 “The Title Board is vested with considerable discretion in setting the title and the ballot title and submission clause,” and we will reverse the Board’s decision only when a title is insufficient, unfair, or misleading. In re Title, Ballot Title & Submission Clause for 2013-2014 #90, 2014 CO 63, ¶ 8, 328 P.3d 155, 159.

¶14 In reviewing Title Board title settings, “we employ all legitimate presumptions in favor of the propriety of the Board’s actions.” In re Title, Ballot Title & Submission Clause for 2009-2010 #45, 234 P.3d 642, 645 (Colo. 2010).

¶15 In addition, in our limited review of the Title Board’s actions, we do not address the merits of the proposed initiative. In re 2013-2014 #90, ¶ 9, 328 P.3d at 159. Nor do we suggest how it might be applied if enacted. Id. Rather, as pertinent here, we must examine the initiative’s wording to determine whether it comports with the constitutional single subject and clear title requirements. See id. In conducting this limited inquiry, we employ the general rules of statutory construction, giving words and phrases their plain and ordinary meanings. Id.

B. Single Subject Requirement

¶16 Article V, section 1(5.5) of the Colorado Constitution provides, in pertinent part:

No measure shall be proposed by petition containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title; but if any subject shall be embraced in any measure which shall not be expressed in the title, such measure shall be void only as to so much thereof as shall not be so expressed. If a measure contains more than one subject, such that a ballot title cannot be fixed that clearly expresses a single subject, no title shall be set and the measure shall not be submitted to the people for adoption or rejection at the polls.

See also § 1-40-106.5(1)(a) (“Section 1(5.5) of article V . . . require[s] that every constitutional amendment or law proposed by initiative . . . be limited to a single subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title . . .”).

¶17 The single subject requirement serves two functions.

¶18 First, it is intended

[t]o forbid the treatment of incongruous subjects in the same measure, especially the practice of putting together in one measure subjects having no necessary or proper connection, for the purpose of enlisting in support of the measure the advocates of each measure, and thus securing the enactment of measures that could not be carried upon their merits[.]

§ 1-40-106.5(1)(e)(I).

¶19 Accordingly, “an initiative’s subject matter must be necessarily and properly connected rather than disconnected or incongruous, and the initiative will be held to violate the single subject requirement when it relates to more than one subject and has at least two distinct and separate purposes.” In re Title, Ballot Title & Submission Clause for 2015-2016 #73, 2016 CO 24, ¶ 14, 369 P.3d 565, 568. Such a requirement prevents proponents from combining multiple subjects to attract a “yes” vote from voters who might vote “no” on one or more of the subjects if they were proposed separately. In re Title, Ballot Title & Submission Clause for 2019-2020 #3, 2019 CO 57, ¶ 14, 442 P.3d 867, 870.

¶20 Second, the single subject requirement seeks “[t]o prevent surreptitious measures and apprise the people of the subject of each measure by the title, that is, to prevent surprise and fraud from being practiced upon voters.” § 1-40-106.5(1)(e)(II).

¶21 When an initiative tends to effectuate one general objective or purpose, then the initiative presents only one subject. In re 2015-2016 #73, ¶ 17, 369 P.3d at 568. Therefore, we will not conclude that an initiative violates the single subject requirement merely because it spells out details relating to its implementation. In re Title, Ballot Title & Submission Clause for 2019-2020 #315, 2020 CO 61, ¶ 15, 500 P.3d 363, 367. Nor will we conclude that an initiative violates the single subject requirement because it may have different effects on other provisions of Colorado law. Id. Such effects are irrelevant to whether the proposed initiative contains a single subject. Id.

¶22 The breadth of the initiative’s objective, however, is not without limits. For example, “[a] proponent’s attempt to characterize an initiative under some general theme will not save the initiative from violating the single-subject rule if the initiative contains multiple subjects.” In re Title, Ballot Title & Submission Clause for 2009-2010 #91, 235 P.3d 1071, 1076 (Colo. 2010).

¶23 We liberally construe the single subject requirement both because of the Title Board’s considerable discretion in setting the title and the ballot title and submission clause and to avoid unduly restricting the initiative process. In re 2013-2014 #90, ¶ 12, 328 P.3d at 159–60. We will therefore overturn the Board’s finding that an initiative contains a single subject only in a “clear case.” In re Title, Ballot Title & Submission Clause for Proposed Initiative 2025-2026 #158, 2026 CO 13, ¶ 13, 585 P.3d 232, 236.

C. Application

¶24 Turning to the measures before us, we begin by noting our view that if the counterpart initiatives were contained within one measure, then the combined measure would comprise at least two subjects, namely, (1) replacing the constitutional independent congressional redistricting commission with an identical statutory commission; and (2) adopting a specific, temporary congressional district map to be used in the 2028 and 2030 congressional elections. See also In re Title, Ballot Title & Submission Clause for 2025-2026 #240, 2026 CO 57, ¶¶ 1, 24, 32, ___ P.3d ___ (also decided today and concluding that initiatives asking voters to approve both mid-cycle redistricting and particular maps in a single initiative comprise multiple subjects). We would so conclude for several reasons.

¶25 First, these two subjects would not be “necessarily and properly connected.” In re 2015-2016 #73, ¶ 14, 369 P.3d at 568. For example, voters might vote to replace the constitutional independent congressional redistricting commission with an identical statutory commission without adopting a new congressional district map. Nor can we perceive how one portion of this combined measure could be said to do no more than recite implementation details of the other. In re 2019-2020 #315, ¶ 15, 500 P.3d at 367.

¶26 Second, in a combined measure, a purported single subject would need to be defined in the broadest of generalities, which would not likely save the measure. See In re 2009-2010 #91, 235 P.3d at 1076.

¶27 Third, and perhaps most significantly, a voter who might wish to replace the constitutional independent congressional redistricting commission with an identical statutory commission might be opposed to the specific map proposed. Conversely, a voter who supports the proposed map might be opposed to replacing the constitutional commission. As a result, such a combined measure might attract “yes” votes from voters who might otherwise vote “no” on one or more of the subjects if they were proposed separately. In re 2019–2020 #3, ¶ 14, 442 P.3d at 870.

¶28 The question thus becomes whether the result should differ when these two subjects are contained in separate initiatives but when the effectiveness of each initiative is expressly contingent on the passage of the other. We conclude that the result is not different and that when a measure’s effectiveness is expressly contingent on the passage of a separate and independent measure, the measure contains multiple subjects, just as if the measures were combined into one. We reach this conclusion for much the same reasons as are set forth above.

¶29 First, when the effective date of one measure is made expressly contingent on the passage of a separate and independent measure, it is neither accurate nor complete to say that the subject of the first measure is the single subject. Thus, here, we do not agree that it is accurate or complete to say that the single subject of Initiative #241 is to move the independent congressional redistricting commission from the state constitution to a statute. Such a statement would ignore the fact that, to become effective, Initiative #241 would require voters also to approve the proposed map set forth in Initiative #242. Accordingly, both the replacement of the constitutional commission and the approval of the proposed map are the subjects of Initiative #241 (and conversely, they are the subjects of Initiative #242).

¶30 Second, for the reasons set forth above, we do not perceive these two subjects to be necessarily and properly connected with one another. Nor can it be said that one merely sets forth implementation features of the other or that the effective date of each initiative is merely an implementation feature directly tied to that initiative's central focus. Such an argument again ignores the fact that the effective date renders each initiative contingent on the passage of the other.

¶31 Finally, for the reasons also set forth above, a voter might wish to move the independent commission from the constitution to a statute but disapprove of the proposed maps set forth in Initiative #242 or Initiative #328. Thus, the initiatives at issue here might well attract "yes" votes from voters who might otherwise vote "no" on one or more of the subjects if they were not made contingent on one another. See id.

¶32 Accordingly, we conclude that Initiative #241, Initiative #242, and Initiative #328 all contain multiple subjects and, thus, the Title Board lacked jurisdiction to set titles for any of them. To conclude otherwise and to allow initiative proponents to proceed with interlocking measures like those at issue here would allow proponents to achieve indirectly what they could not achieve directly and would endorse an end run around the single subject requirement. This we cannot do.

¶33 We are not persuaded otherwise by the contrary arguments raised by the proponents of each of these initiatives or by the Title Board in the cases concerning Initiative #241 and Initiative #242.

¶34 Contrary to these parties' arguments, we do not agree that the assertions as to why these initiatives contain multiple subjects are merely arguments regarding the effects of the initiatives, which effects are irrelevant to a single subject analysis. See In re 2019–2020 #315, ¶ 15, 500 P.3d at 367. For the reasons set forth above, each of the arguments directly relates to the concerns motivating the single subject requirement.

¶35 Nor are we persuaded by the assertion that the initiatives at issue satisfy the single subject requirement because they all “point in the same direction.” The fact that the initiatives allegedly point in the same direction does not make their respective ends necessarily and properly connected. Nor does it resolve the logrolling concern that we described above (i.e., the concern that a voter may want to move the independent redistricting commission from the constitution to a statute but may not agree with the particular map proposed in the connected initiative).

¶36 Finally, we are unpersuaded by the assertion that these initiatives do not run afoul of the single subject rule because if the proposed mid-cycle temporary redistricting maps do not pass, then there would be no reason to move the independent commission from the constitution to a statute. Such an argument does not establish that the measures are necessarily and properly connected. To the contrary, this argument makes clear that the subjects are, in fact, disconnected and incongruous because one is not necessarily connected to the other.

III. Conclusion

¶37 For these reasons, we conclude that an initiative violates the single subject requirement when its effectiveness is conditioned on the passage of a separate initiative. We therefore further conclude that Initiative #241, Initiative #242, and Initiative #328 encompass multiple subjects in violation of article V, section 1(5.5) of the Colorado Constitution and section 1-40-106.5.

¶38 Accordingly, we reverse the actions of the Title Board in case nos. 26SA122 and 26SA123 and affirm the action of the Title Board in case no. 26SA157. In light of this disposition, we need not reach, and we express no opinion on, the other issues raised in the petitions for review now before us.

(6) AFTER APPLICATIONS ARE SUBMITTED, NONPARTISAN STAFF, WITH THE COOPERATION AND ASSISTANCE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, SHALL MAKE AN OBJECTIVE AND FACTUAL FINDING BASED ON, TO THE EXTENT POSSIBLE, PUBLICLY AVAILABLE INFORMATION, INCLUDING INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE APPLICATION AND INFORMATION CONTAINED WITHIN THE RECORDS MAINTAINED BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE, WHETHER EACH APPLICANT MEETS THE QUALIFICATIONS SPECIFIED IN SUBSECTION (2) OF THIS SECTION. NO LATER THAN JANUARY 11 OF THE REDISTRICTING YEAR, NONPARTISAN STAFF SHALL MAKE ITS FINDINGS PUBLICLY AVAILABLE AND NOTIFY THE APPLICANTS OF THE STAFF'S FINDING. (b) ANY VACANCY ON THE COMMISSION, INCLUDING ONE THAT OCCURS DUE TO DEATH, RESIGNATION, REMOVAL, FAILURE TO MEET THE QUALIFICATIONS OF APPOINTMENT, REFUSAL OR INABILITY TO ACCEPT AN APPOINTMENT, OR OTHERWISE, MUST BE FILLED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE BY THE DESIGNATED APPOINTING AUTHORITY FROM THE DESIGNATED POOL OF ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS FOR THAT COMMISSIONER'S POSITION AND IN THE SAME MANNER AS THE ORIGINALLY CHOSEN COMMISSIONER; EXCEPT THAT NO COMMISSIONER CHOSEN TO FILL A VACANCY WILL BE BYPASSED FOR APPOINTMENT IF ALL CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS ARE ALREADY REPRESENTED ON THE COMMISSION.

(6) COLORADO IS A NATIONAL LEADER ON FAIR, INDEPENDENT, AND NONPARTISAN REDISTRICTING.

(7) COLORADO CALLS ON CONGRESS AND ALL OTHER STATES TO COMMIT TO FAIR AND IMPARTIAL DRAWING OF MAPS.

(8) COLORADO HAS A DUTY TO DEFEND DEMOCRACY.

(9) THE 2028 AND 2030 CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS MUST BE CONDUCTED ON A NATIONAL LEVEL PLAYING FIELD WITHOUT AN EXTREME AND UNFAIR ADVANTAGE FOR REPUBLICANS.

(10) THE PEOPLE OF COLORADO, NOT POLITICIANS, SHOULD HAVE THE POWER TO APPROVE TEMPORARY CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT MAPS IN RESPONSE TO PRESIDENT TRUMP'S ELECTIONRIGGING SCHEME; AND

(7) THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF DENVER SHALL REVIEW THE SINGLEMEMBER DISTRICTS FOR CONGRESS SET FORTH IN SUBSECTION (3) OF THIS SECTION AND DETERMINE WHETHER THE DISTRICTS COMPLY WITH THE CRITERIA SET FORTH IN SUBSECTION (1.5)(b) OF THIS SECTION. BOTH IN THE DISTRICT COURT AND ANY APPELLATE COURT, THE COURT'S REVIEW AND DETERMINATION SHALL TAKE PRECEDENCE OVER OTHER MATTERS BEFORE THE COURT. THE DISTRICT COURT AND ANY APPELLATE COURT SHALL APPROVE THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS UNLESS IT FINDS THAT THE DISTRICTS DO NOT SUBSTANTIALLY COMPLY WITH THE CRITERIA SET FORTH IN SUBSECTION (1.5)(b) OF THIS SECTION. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER

PROVISION OF LAW, VENUE FOR A CIVIL ACTION CHALLENGING THE VALIDITY, CONSTITUTIONALITY, OR ENFORCEABILITY OF THE REDISTRICTING PLAN SET FORTH IN SUBSECTION (3) OF THIS SECTION SHALL LIE EXCLUSIVELY IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF DENVER. A COVERED ACTION MAY NOT BE FILED IN ANY OTHER DISTRICT COURT. IF A COVERED ACTION IS FILED IN A COURT OTHER THAN THE DENVER DISTRICT COURT, THE COURT SHALL TRANSFER THE ACTION TO THE DENVER DISTRICT COURT WITHOUT DISMISSAL. THE DATE OF FILING FOR PURPOSES OF TIMELINESS SHALL BE THE DATE THE ACTION WAS ORIGINALLY FILED.

(8) AFTER THE 2030 DECENNIAL CENSUS, THE CONGRESSIONAL REDISTRICTING COMMISSION ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO SECTION 2-1-105.2(1) SHALL ENGAGE IN THE REDISTRICTING PROCESS AS SPECIFIED IN SECTION 2-1-105.2 THROUGH 2-1-105.7 IN 2031, AND EVERY 10 YEARS THEREAFTER.

(9) UPON ADOPTION OF A NEW CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT MAP BY THE VOTERS OF COLORADO, THE SECRETARY OF STATE SHALL PREPARE COPIES OF CENSUS MAPS SHOWING THEREON EACH LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT AND A DESCRIPTION OF EACH DISTRICT IN TERMS OF OFFICIAL CENSUS UNITS. THE SECRETARY OF STATE SHALL ALSO FILE WITH THE COUNTY CLERK AND RECORDER IN EACH COUNTY THE NECESSARY MAPS AND DESCRIPTIONS OF EACH LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT LOCATED WITHIN THE BOUNDARIES OF SUCH COUNTY.

SECTION 3. Severability.

The provisions of this measure are severable. If any portion, section, subdivision, paragraph, clause, sentence, phrase, word, or application of this measure is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, that decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this measure.

SECTION 4. Effective Date.

This measure takes effect only if, at the November 2026 statewide election, a ballot issue repealing sections 44, 44.1, 44.2, 44.3, 44.4, 44.5, and 44.6 of article V of the Colorado constitution is approved by the people, in which case this measure takes effect on the date of the official declaration of the vote thereon by the governor.

Ballot Title Setting Board

Proposed Initiative 2025-2026 #242

The title as designated and fixed by the Board is as follows:

A change to the Colorado Revised Statutes creating a new temporary congressional district map to be used in 2028 and 2030 congressional elections if a ballot measure replacing the constitutional independent congressional redistricting commission with an identical statutory independent congressional redistricting commission is approved by a vote of the people.

The ballot title and submission clause as designated and fixed by the Board is as follows:

Shall there be a change to the Colorado Revised Statutes creating a new temporary congressional district map to be used in 2028 and 2030 congressional elections if a ballot measure replacing the constitutional independent congressional redistricting commission with an identical statutory independent congressional redistricting commission is approved by a vote of the people?

APPENDIX C – Initiative #328

Be it Enacted by the People of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 2-1-100.5, amend (1), and add (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), and (11), as follows:

2-1-100.5. ~~Legislative declaration~~ Declaration of the people of the State of Colorado.

(1) ~~The general assembly~~ THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF COLORADO hereby ~~finds~~ FIND and ~~declares~~ DECLARE that the state of Colorado shall be divided into districts pursuant to the official figures of the most recent decennial census of the United States. ~~The general assembly~~ PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF COLORADO further ~~finds~~ FIND and ~~declares~~ DECLARE that such figures are the most reliable data that the state has available and that the use of any other data or of any data adjustments may create a serious risk of inaccuracy and injustice in establishing congressional districts to represent the citizens of Colorado.

(2) FOR YEARS, VARIOUS STATES HAVE GERRYMANDERED SEATS TO ENSURE ONE POLITICAL PARTY OR ANOTHER OBTAINS A MAJORITY FAR IN EXCESS OF THE PARTY'S VOTING STRENGTH. AS A RESULT, BOTH MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES SEEK TO UNDERTAKE AN UNPRECEDENTED MID-DECADE REDISTRICTING OF CONGRESSIONAL SEATS TO RIG FUTURE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS BEFORE VOTING BEGINS.

(3) SEVERAL STATES HAVE CONSIDERED, CONVENEED, OR INTEND TO CONVENE SPECIAL SESSIONS OF THEIR LEGISLATURES TO REDRAW CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT MAPS TO UNFAIRLY ADVANTAGE THE OTHER POLITICAL PARTY.

(4) BOTH MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES ARE ATTEMPTING TO GAIN ENOUGH SEATS THROUGH REDISTRICTING TO RIG THE OUTCOME OF FUTURE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS REGARDLESS OF HOW THE PEOPLE VOTE.

(5) THESE ONGOING ELECTION-RIGGING SCHEMES ARE AN EMERGENCY FOR OUR DEMOCRACY.

(6) COLORADO IS A NATIONAL LEADER ON FAIR, INDEPENDENT, AND NONPARTISAN REDISTRICTING.

(7) COLORADO CALLS ON CONGRESS AND ALL OTHER STATES TO COMMIT TO FAIR AND IMPARTIAL DRAWING OF MAPS.

(8) COLORADO HAS A DUTY TO DEFEND DEMOCRACY.

(9) THE 2028 AND 2030 CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS MUST BE CONDUCTED ON A LEVEL PLAYING FIELD WITHOUT AN EXTREME AND UNFAIR ADVANTAGE FOR DEMOCRATS OR REPUBLICANS.

(10) THE PEOPLE OF COLORADO, NOT POLITICIANS, SHOULD HAVE THE POWER TO APPROVE TEMPORARY CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT MAPS; AND

(11) IT IS THE INTENT OF THE PEOPLE THAT COLORADO'S MAPS BE DESIGNED TO STOP PARTISAN GERRYMANDERING BEING UNDERTAKEN BY OTHER STATES WITHOUT ERODING FAIR REPRESENTATION FOR ALL COMMUNITIES.

SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 2-1-105, amend (8), add (1.5), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), and (9), and repeal (1) and (2), as follows:

2-1-105. Maps of legislative districts.

~~(1) At the time of submission of a final congressional plan to the Colorado supreme court for its review and determination in accordance with section 44.5 of article V of the state constitution, the congressional commission shall provide the supreme court with a copy of all maps showing the division of the state into legislative districts and necessary supportive evidence, pursuant to the supreme court rules adopted for such proceedings.~~

(1.5) (a) IT IS THE POLICY OF THE STATE OF COLORADO TO SUPPORT THE USE OF FAIR, INDEPENDENT, AND NONPARTISAN REDISTRICTING COMMISSIONS NATIONWIDE. THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF COLORADO CALL ON THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO PASS

FEDERAL LEGISLATION AND PROPOSE AN AMENDMENT OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION TO REQUIRE THE USE OF FAIR, INDEPENDENT AND NONPARTISAN REDISTRICTING COMMISSIONS NATIONWIDE.

(b) IN RESPONSE TO THE MID-DECADE CONGRESSIONAL REDISTRICTING THREATENED OR UNDERTAKEN IN OTHER STATES, AND NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF EXISTING LAW, THE SINGLE-MEMBER DISTRICTS FOR CONGRESS SET FORTH IN SECTION 2-1-101.7, COLORADO REVISED STATUTES, SHALL TEMPORARILY BE USED FOR EVERY COLORADO CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION FOR A TERM OF OFFICE COMMENCING ON OR AFTER THE DATE THIS MEASURE IS ADOPTED BY THE VOTERS OF COLORADO, AND BEFORE THE CERTIFICATION OF NEW CONGRESSIONAL BOUNDARY LINES DRAWN BY THE CONGRESSIONAL REDISTRICTING COMMISSION AFTER THE 2030 DECENNIAL CENSUS PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (3) OF THIS SECTION. THE TEMPORARY DISTRICTS SHALL BE CONTIGUOUS, COMPLY WITH THE "VOTING RIGHTS ACT OF 1965," 52 U.S.C. SEC. 10301, AS AMENDED AND COMPLY WITH THE FEDERAL ONE-PERSON-ONE-VOTE REQUIREMENTS.

~~(2) As soon as possible after approval of a final plan by the Colorado supreme court, the congressional commission shall prepare and file with the secretary of state copies of census maps showing thereon each legislative district and a description of each district in terms of official census units. The congressional commission shall also file with the county clerk and recorder in each county the necessary maps and descriptions of each legislative district located within the boundaries of such county.~~ Definitions.

(a) "VTD" MEANS VOTER TABULATION DISTRICT, AS USED BY THE U.S. CENSUS BUREAU.

(b) "BLOCK" MEANS THE STATISTICAL AREA AS DEFINED BY THE U.S. CENSUS BUREAU.

(3) FOR THE ELECTION OF REPRESENTATIVES TO CONGRESS COMMENCING ON OR AFTER THE DATE THIS MEASURE IS ADOPTED BY
